Information about the town and/or neighborhood	Olvera belongs to the Route of White Towns, a unique group of towns in the mountains of Cadiz. It's located in a strategic area, as it is only 100 kms from the main cities in Andalucía, namely Malaga, Sevilla and Cadiz and about 150 kms from other important capital cities, such as Cordoba or Granada. (https://www.olvera.es/index.php/es/)

	Olvera has about 8.000 inhabitants and its city centre and surrounding areas offer a huge variety of entertaining activities. There is a huge number of restaurants, some shops, pubs and discos. There are two big gyms and some private sport trainers. The townhall organises multiple cultural activities such as the Autumn theatre contest, cinema, cultural routes... Here you will also enjoy traditional festivities, such as the Holy Week, Carnival, Christmas concerts and activities, and our Lunes de Quasimodo (our “romería”). It’s a traditional pilgrimage to a local church located outside the town, with a picnic and traditional dancing and food. (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kyMSUUQLOAM) If you are interested in sports, then our Via Verde is a great option. It’s an old railway transformed into a track that links different towns and where you can go hiking, ride a bike or a horse, walk or go running. This track takes you to Zaframagon Risk, that gives name to our highschool, and the only vulture reservation in Spain. (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=odgX97mm2fE) Olvera is a great place to live and learn traditional Spanish lifestyle without getting bored, as it has everything you may need.
Getting to school	You won’t need to use public transport to come to work, as you will be able to walk anywhere in the town. There is a public bus that goes around the town during the day and also a bus station to take buses to other cities (Sevilla, Cadiz, Málaga) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Possibility of car-pooling with other teachers. *Specify cost (if any).
